19. The Friendship Parade

Music began to play, and Toby Tortoise proudly led the Friendship Parade. Behind him came the zebras with their striped banner, Ellie with her painted sign, the waddling penguins and Leo calling, “WELCOME, FRIENDS!” Rambo walked beside Poppy. She carried her little orange flag and waved to the cheering animals. “I am glad I came,” she said. Rambo’s tail wagged. “The parade would not be complete without you.” Together, every animal moved at a pace that kept every friend included.

YOUR TURN: Colour the Friendship Parade any way you like and add yourself to the celebration.
